

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary is a
clear example of the dangers of media
ownership rules.

I understand that Sinclair is
obligated by law to serve public interest. Being able to force a large number of "their"
stations to provide
sheer propoganda
serving the beliefs
of the Sinclair head
honchos is NOT
servicing our democracy. We don't need more irrational
and destructive (and possibly dishonest)
canned messages.

Sinclair's actions
should be stopped
immediately by the
FCC and the courts.

Their proposed
action shows, once
again, how much the FCC needs to
strengthen media's
fair conduct rules.

Can the FCC
withdraw their current license or refuse to renew
those licenses?
There should be some
price to pay for behavior that is clearly contrary to the "public interest". Thank you.
